SERMON NOTES

When Jesus shows up and challenges you to believe something about Him that you have never believed before, how do you respond?

When Jesus shows up and asks you to surrender, to take a knee before Him, what do you do?

Astonished – ekplēssō – to be overwhelmed, to be shocked, to be knocked off balance. It could mean to be puzzled, disturbed, threatened, or suspicious.

offense - skandalizō - to put a stumbling block in the way and causing someone to trip and fall.

When resistance rises...

- we will either take offense or take a knee.
- we will either pursue approval or endure rejection.
- we will either see Jesus marvel at our unbelief or our belief.

When Jesus shows up and challenges you to believe something about Him that you have never believed before, how do you respond?

When Jesus shows up and asks you to surrender, to take a knee before Him, what do you do?

The question before the house is this: “Will you follow a God you do not understand? Will you follow a God who does not live up to your expectations?”

Where might you be offended (even if just a little bit) at Jesus because of His commands, His plan, His timing, His silence?

What is Jesus asking you to surrender today?

What would it look like for you to follow Jesus, a King you don't fully understand, but you do fully trust?
